Did you know March 29th is National Mom and Pop Business Owners Day? These businesses create economic growth and provide nearly 70% of all new jobs in the country. This month we want to share the story of one particular individual whose passion is serving her community. She has been providing outstanding service and attention to members of Jackson for over 28 years. Her name is AnnMarie Raehtz, and she is the owner and operator of AnnMarie's Bridal Event Wear & Suits. Her interest in this type of work came from a desire to be her own business owner. Years ago she first answered an ad in the newspaper for women's attire, and it turned out to be a bridal shop. After learning more about this line of work, she quickly discovered this was something she wanted to pursue. "To be a part of someone's special day really made me feel like this is what I should be doing," AnnMarie shared.

The shop's philosophy "Make It Special - Make It Perfect" has been her desire since its inception. Located on the second floor of the Commonwealth Commerce Center, shopping at AnnMarie's is more than just picking out a nice suit or beautiful gown. "It is my goal to make sure that everyone has a unique, personal, once in a lifetime experience they will cherish and remember for years to come."

AnnMarie's love for fashion and helping people look their best isn't the only thing driving her work. She shared her
